EXTRA GOOD ORGANS

Epworth organs cost more to make than the common kind. But our direct-from-factory selling saves that heavy middle expense. By saving in the selling, we put more in the making.

The more people know how good the Epworth is — and how we deal — the more our business grows. Write for catalogue today.

TO OBSERVE WATCH NIGHT. — I venture to express the sincere hope and desire that every pastor of the six Conferences in New England will observe "watch night" with full services of preaching, praise and prayer. Separate services in each place of worship are always preferable to union services on this occasion. Make the service of prayer prominent, and expect to see souls converted. W. F. MALLALIEU.

DEDICATION AT OLD ORCHARD, MAINE. — The beautiful new church, costing over $5 000, with vestry as yet unfinished, will be dedicated Friday, Dec. 29. At 2 p. m. the Lord's Supper will be observed, after which will follow Gospel addresses by Revs. Luther Freeman and W. S. Bovard, of Portland. At 7 30 Rev. Dr. Wm. R Newhall, of Wilbraham Academy, will preach. The dedication service will follow. Music by choir, cornet and Conference quartet. Saturday, 2 p. m., sermon and addresses. Pastors of Maine Conference are cordially invited to assist. H. A. CLIFFORD.

W. H. M. S. — The second quarterly meeting of the New England Conference Woman's Home Missionary Society will be held in Saratoga St. Church, East Boston, Wednesday, Jan. 3. Morning session at 10, devoted to reports and business. The afternoon session at 2 will be given to a memorial service to Mrs. George W. Mansfield. Lunch served at 11 cents a plate.
